How the President and Vice-President are Elected

In view of the interest attached to the ensuing Presidential election, and in order to fully post our readers upon the subject, we again insert the following summary of the constitutional requirements and the acts of Congress upon the election of President and Vice-President of the United States:

1. The Electors are chosen by the votes of the people on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November

2. Electors meet on the first Wednesday in December, and cast their votes. They then sign three certificates—send the messenger with one copy to the President of the Senate at Washington before the first Wednesday in January, another by mail to the same person, and the third deliver to the United States District Judge where electors meet.

3. Each State provides by law for filling any vacancy in the Board of Electors, occasioned by absence, death or resignation. Such of the electors as are present are generally authorized to fill any vacancy

4. The Governors give notice to electors of their election before the first Wednesday in December

5. On the second Wednesday in February, Congress shall be in session and open the returns. The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the House of Representatives, open the certificates of returns and count the votes. The person having the greatest number of votes for President shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed. ... the persons having the highest numbers, not exceeding three, on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the President, but in choosing the President the votes shall be taken by ...

The Wheat and Other Crops

The wheat crop of 1860 is the largest that has yet been produced. In all the Western States, excepting the western part of Missouri and a portion of Kansas, where it was injured by the drought, the story of the crop is the same wonderful and gratifying one—wheat unprecedented in size and an unprecedented abundance in the general yield. The New York Courier estimates the quantity of increase as follows

WHEAT.

States.	1859 bush	1860 bush
New York	22,000,000	25,000,000
Pennsylvania	23,000,000	25,000,000
Virginia and North Carolina	20,000,000	15,000,000
Kentucky	11,000,000	9,000,000
Ohio	25,000,000	24,000,000
Indiana	17,000,000	19,000,000
Illinois	20,000,000	25,000,000
Other States	60,000,000	80,000,000
Total	200,000,000	222,000,000

The increase in the "other States" is chiefly in Wisconsin and Michigan, the first producing this year about 16,000,000 bushels, and the latter about 14,000,000 bushels.

The production in the Western States which have the largest surplus for export is shown by the following figures

WHEAT

States	1859 bush	1860 bush
Kentucky	11,000,000	9,000,000
Ohio	25,000,000	24,000,000
Indiana	17,000,000	19,000,000
Illinois	20,000,000	25,000,000
Wisconsin and Michigan		30,000,000
Total	74,000,000	111,000,000

In Parliament, Lord John Russell, in reply to inquiries as to the part England would take as regards intervention in Syria, said that marines would be landed from the British squadron, if necessary, to protect English subjects there, but that he had great hopes the energy of Fuad Pacha would speedily restore tranquility, and render such a proceeding unnecessary.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The members of the cabinet held an informal meeting at the State Department to-day. Communications on all important subjects are sent to the President at Bedford

Minister McLane is here on business connected with Central Mexican affairs. It is known from the latest advices that the liberal government is extremely anxious to know what will be the course of the United States should there be armed intervention by several European powers in Mexico. The more probability of such united action—a formal reconciliation of the liberal and church parties being considered maintainable—excites more than usual interest. It is further known that the liberal government desires the return of Mr. McLane, in preference to the appointment of any other person as minister of the United States

THE SUN.

BALTIMORE, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1860.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—From Mr Hy. Taylor, Sun Iron Building, we have copies of the following works

"New American Cyclopedia." Vol X. Edited by George Ripley and Charles A. Dana—New York D Appleton & Co This exceedingly useful and valuable publication grows upon us with acquaintance, and we welcome each new volume with higher appreciation.—It is a compendium of general knowledge which will be esteemed wherever it shall find a place and in the household library, where it will be accessible to the youth of the family, it will serve as a resource for a leisure hour as well as for reference, and in either case be invaluable. The present volume extends from the word Jerusalem to the word Macler-fin It includes a short biographical sketch of Abraham Lincoln, the republican candidate for the presidency. As a specimen of the wonderful liberality of this man, and his bigoted policy, we quote from a speech of his in Congress

"In regard to the question whether I am pledged to the admission of any more slave States into the Union, I state to you very frankly that I would be exceedingly sorry ever to be put in a position of having to pass upon that question. I should be exceedingly glad to know that there would never be another slave State admitted into the Union; I must add that, if slavery shall be kept out of the Territories during the Territorial existence of any one given Territory, and then the people shall, having a fair chance and a clear field, when they come to adopt their constitution, do such an extraordinary thing as to adopt a slave constitution, uninfluenced by the actual presence of the institution among them, I see no alternative, if we own the country, but to admit them into the Union."

This wonderful condescension avowed by a candidate for the presidency, proves how utterly unfit such a man is for the office The proposition is ludicrous in the extreme, for its converse is simply this If a territory should be settled by a people owning slaves, and they should adopt a slave constitution, such a State must not be admitted into the Union It is only a people from whom slavery has been excluded, and who would "do such an extraordinary thing as to adopt a slave constitution," who would be worthy of admission into the Union Such twaddle as this is beneath contempt. Let us remark, however, that the Encyclopædia is entirely free from objectionable comment upon [illegible]

DECISIONS.

THE GREAT SEWING MACHINE CASES DECIDED BY JUSTICE NELSON

The following are decisions rendered on a final hearing on pleadings and proofs in five sewing machine cases which were argued in June last, by George Gifford and E. W. Stoughton for the complainants, and by George G Sickles and D. A. Seward for the defendants, before Justice Nelson, Judge Smalley sitting with him, at Cooperstown, New York The arguments occupied about two weeks, and the cases have since been held under advisement by the court The testimony was very voluminous amounting to nearly two thousand pages in print

The opinions of the court contain all necessary particulars to enable the subject to be understood. The decisions are a complete triumph of the complainants

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT, Southern District of New York.

Orlando B. Potter and Nathaniel Wheeler vs Jas. G. Wilson and Alexander C. Stockmar. In Equity

Same vs George B. Sloat and others. In Equity

Same vs John B Gibbs. In Equity.

NELSON, C. J.—These suits are founded upon two reissued patents to A. B. Wilson, for improvements in the feed motion of a sewing machine. The original patent for the invention was granted 12th November, 1850 It was surrendered, and two reissues, numbered 345 346, thereon, both bearing date 22d January, 1851 345 was subsequently surrendered, and reissued 9th December, 1856, numbered 414

Previous to the invention of Wilson, as claimed by the plaintiffs, the material to be sewed had been advanced under the needle, or sewing apparatus by the hand of the operator, or fixed permanently to a frame called in technical language, a baster plate, which was advanced with the cloth by a regular progressive motion to the needle, through the agency of suitable machinery. By the former process feeding by hand, the cloth could be turned at will, so that seams of any given curvature could be sewed but there was no security for regularity of stitch except the care and skill of the operator By the latter, the regularity of stitch was attained, but from the permanent attachment of the cloth to the baster plate a seam, with curvatures and angles at the will of the operator, as the sewing progressed, could not be formed The object of the improvement in question was to remedy these defects, by causing the cloth to be moved automatically under the needle, and the device so arranged as to admit of seams of any curvature and at the same time secure regularity of stitch. This Wilson accomplished by the machinery and process described in the specification of the patent

Instead of the baster plate, the cloth was advanced under the needle mechanically, according to the arrangement, by the joint action of two surfaces between which it was held, an intermittent motion being given to at least one of them which caused the cloth to progress regularly securing uniformity of stitch and at the same time permitting the material to be turned by the hand so as to sew a straight or curved seam

The claims in the reissued patents, numbered 345 and 414 which are in controversy in these suits, are all founded upon this feed improvement upon the previous sewing machines

The utility of the improvement is admitted indeed it is apparent that without it, or some equivalent which would admit of curved seams to be sewed automatically, the sewing machine, now in almost universal use, would have been comparatively very limited in its operation It is insisted, however, that Wilson was not the first and original [illegible]

BALTIMORE, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1860

WASHINGTON, August 21.

Dispatches from Spain—Her Demands and Designs on Mexico—The United States Claims on Mexico.

A special messenger, with dispatches of importance from the Spanish minister in Mexico, both for the Spanish legation here and for the government at Madrid, arrived at New Orleans, from Vera Cruz, on the 16th instant. He has probably arrived here by this time, and is to go home to Madrid as speedily as possible. The Picayune has an inkling of the contents of the dispatches, and presumes that they are of such a character as will, when our government shall be apprised of the same, induce it to increase the naval force of the United States in the Mexican gulf. The presumption is that Spain has determined to press her demands both upon the Juarez government and the Miramon government for an adjustment of claims and redress of alleged grievances, and, in the event of non-compliance, to bombard Vera Cruz, &c. How the Spanish naval commander can reach Miramon, where he is somewhere locked up, it does not appear. But he can blockade Vera Cruz. England and France are apparently acting in co-operation with Spain, in matters relative to Mexico. The coercive measures which are proposed by Spain will not, probably, be opposed by the other two European powers, who have also made large reclamations upon the Mexican government. Whether the United States government will feel itself called upon to interfere is very doubtful. Because we do not enforce our own claims against Mexico, there is no reason why we should hinder others from bringing her to a sense of justice.

Against the reconquest and recolonization of Mexico by any European power, our government must of course protest, as it has ever done. But at the very commencement of the difficulties between Spain and Mexico, which, at one time, threatened to end in war, as at present, the Spanish government explained to the government of the United States that their object was limited to the resentment of injuries and the exaction of redress, and they had no wish or intent to conquer Mexico or recolonize it. NEW YORK, August 21.

The mayor of this city has been authorized to present to the Prince of Wales, for his lodgings here, the residences of the following persons, viz: Mrs. Haight, on Fifth avenue, and Mrs. Parish, Union Square. Mr. Abbot, of the Spingler Institute, has offered that institution. It is rumored that Moses H. Grinnell, Esq., has also tendered the use of his splendid mansion, in Fourteenth street. Mr. R. K. Haight has done the same thing, but Mayor Wood will probably have the honor of the custody of his Royal Highness at his residence, near Manhattanville.

The thirteenth anniversary of the battles of Contreras and Cherubusco—two of the most sanguinary battles fought during the war with Mexico—was celebrated yesterday in an appropriate manner by the Scott Life Guard of this city, composed of men nearly all of whom were active participants in these conflicts.

The sum of $1,710 has been contributed in this city for the relief of the sufferers by the massacre in Syria. Wm. E. Dodge, Esq., gives $1,000 of the amount.

The dry goods store of Messrs. Curtis & Co., 15 Park street, was entered on Saturday night and robbed of $1,000 worth of silks, which were subsequently found concealed in a new building on Broadway. In a drawer next to that containing the silks, was about $20,000 worth of laces, which the thieves stupidly overlooked.

PHILADELPHIA, August 21.

Affairs in Philadelphia.

Last evening the Hall of the National Democratic [Breckinridge] Association, southwest corner of Tenth and Chesnut streets, was formally opened. Notwithstanding the heat was very oppressive, the room was crowded, and numbers left, unable to gain admission. Two meetings, in consequence of the crowd, were organized on the outside. Capt. Day, Gov. Stevens, of Oregon, and others delivered addresses. Later in the evening Gov. S. and the Hon. Wm. H. Welsh, of York, chairman of the State Committee, were serenaded by their friends.

The People's Campaign Club, through Wm. B. Mann, yesterday received a rail supposed to have been split by Abraham Lincoln. It came through from Illinois by Harden's express, the freight being $2, and was taken to the rooms of the club. It is four feet six inches long.

A counterfeit five on the Manufacturers' Bank of Brooklyn, N. Y., was circulated in this city last evening. It has a pink face, and one of the corner vignettes represents a blacksmith standing, the other a boy with a lamb.

Charles Dougherty, a painter by trade, and who resided in Wood street, was drowned a few days ago, on the trip from Cape May. He leaves a wife and three children.

TROUBLE IN JERUSALEM.—A letter was received in Boston on Friday, from Simeon Murad, the acting American consul in Jerusalem, who says that considerable anxiety is felt by the Christian European residents. The Arabs without the walls, to say nothing of those within, are evidently under unusual excitement. Those of Djbel Kuds and Djbel Mablous have already destroyed the surrounding crops. Bread is beginning to be very dear, so that a loaf which ordinarily cost five paras now brings twenty, and scarce at that. The poor are suffering, and apprehensions of a fearful outbreak are anticipated. There is no calculating the amount of misery that would follow, should the fanatical spirit of the Mohammedans break forth as it has on former occasions at Jerusalem, which has in past ages passed through more extraordinary scenes of blood, slaughter and rapine than any other place on the whole globe.

PRICE OF LAND AT NEWPORT.—Mr. Belmont, the New York banker, has purchased fourteen acres of land at Newport, R. I., fronting on Bellevue avenue, for a little over $3,000 an acre. It is but eight or nine years since Mr. Bancroft, who, unlike most litterateurs, must have had some "speculation in his eyes," astonished people by buying thirty acres adjoining the present purchase of Mr. Belmont for $500 an acre. It was considered a bold stroke, but the sagacious historian found no difficulty in disposing at once of all but the four or five acres which he reserved for his own residence, for prices ranging from $1,000 to $2,000 per acre.

A SINGULAR SUIT.—Rev. Mr. Babcock, formerly pastor over the Universalist Society at South Natick, Mass., who, it will be remembered, was prominently identified with the shoemakers' strike at that place, and who was discharged in consequence of his openly expressed sympathy therewith, has sued the Society for salary not paid, and has attached the church organ. Mr. B. claims that he was employed to preach for a year, but was prevented from occupying the pulpit for the last four or five Sabbaths by the action of the Society or their committee, and he claims pay for a full year.—Boston Post.

A SICKLES CASE IN KENTUCKY.—On Tuesday of last week a man named Kellar was killed at Mt. Sterling, Ky., by another named Thomas. The latter had suspected an improper intimacy between his wife and Kellar, and on Tuesday he found them together in the woods near the town, she sitting upon the ground holding Kellar's head in her lap and combing his hair. Thomas drew his knife, and rushing upon Kellar, killed him on the spot.

NIAGARA SUSPENSION BRIDGE.—The Niagara Suspension Bridge has lately undergone a very minute and careful inspection. It is pronounced by those competent to examine it as perfect as when completed, and there is not the least evidence of weakness in any part.—Those best acquainted with the bridge, express the conviction that a century of time will make no impression upon the structure in any part.—Buffalo Republic.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—Miss Mary Bochman, a milliner, was burnt to death on Saturday night, in Jeffersonville, Tenn. She was sitting by a table sewing, and accidentally overturned the lamp. The flames communicated to her dress, which was of thin material. Almost instantly her clothing was in flames, and she was so dreadfully burnt that she expired in the greatest agony in a few hours.

IMPORTANT ARREST.—J. V. Rand, who made his escape from the jail at Flemington, N. J., some months ago, where he was awaiting trial on the charge of blowing open the safe of the Belvidere and Delaware Railroad Company, and stealing therefrom about $5,000, was brought back from Connecticut to Trenton last Saturday, and safely lodged, the same evening, in Flemington jail.

GUANO.—The Acting Secretary of State, Wm. Henry Trescott, Esq., has issued a proclamation, confirming to Messrs. A. G. Benson, Wm. W. Taylor and George E. Netcher, associated as the United States Guano Company, the title to the occupancy of Howland's Island in the Pacific ocean, with the right to dispose of guano therefrom, according to the laws of the United States.

WRIT OF ERROR REFUSED.—The Court of Appeals of Virginia have refused to grant a writ of error in the case of Wm. Hendricks, who was convicted at the May term of the Circuit Court of Lynchburg, for the murder of Thomas Johnson, and sentenced to be executed on the 31st inst.

LIBERAL.—The citizens of Providence, R. I., have subscribed $1,000 in behalf of the Providence Light Infantry, to defray their expenses to Cleveland, Ohio. The list is headed by Alexander Duncan, Esq., who gives $500. The proposed tour is to attend the dedication of the Perry monument. Commodore Perry was a Rhode Islander. Gov. Sprague and aids will go on with the Infantry.

POLITICS IN AUSTRIA.—Notice has just been given to the clerks employed in the government offices at Vienna that they must abstain from all political discussions. The circular concludes with these words: "For it is the firm and unchangeable will of his Majesty to make no alteration in the form of existing government."

NOMINATIONS.—The democrats of Adams county, Pa., have nominated the following ticket: Assembly, Henry J. Myers. Sheriff, Samuel Wolf. Prothonotary, Henry A. Picking. Register, &c., Edward McIntire. Clerk of the Courts, John Eicholtz. Commissioner, Wm. B. Gardner. Auditor, Henry Dysert.

AN EXPENSIVE WORD.—At Portland, Stephen and William Mayberry, father and son, have been sentenced—the first to the State prison for one year, and the latter to pay a fine of $500 and costs for conspiracy to cheat. The fraud consisted in inserting the word "not" between the words "do convey," in a deed.

THE OIL WELLS.—The Venango (Pa.) Spectator says several parties have struck good veins of oil within the limits of the borough of Franklin. The yield of the wells all along the Allegheny river and Oil creek continues large. Oil has also been discovered on Little Chartiers creek, in Washington county.

THE VOTE OF MISSOURI.—The vote of Missouri at this election indicates an astonishing increase of population. In 1856 it only amounted to 106,000. This year—with twenty counties not heard from—the official vote is over 140,000.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The citizens of Bendersville, Adams county, Pa., intend holding an agricultural fair on the 25th, 26th and 27th of September next. Hon. E. McPherson will deliver the annual address.

ABE COUSIN.—It is stated that among the delegates to the Breckinridge convention at Charlottesville, Va., last week, was Abraham Lincoln, of Rockingham, a cousin of the republican candidate for the presidency.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. F. Guy, of Charles City county, Va., lost one of his toes by having it run over by the cars of the Richmond and Fredericksburg railroad, on Saturday last.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

The foreign news by the North American, according to a brief glimpse given by the telegraph, is of the most favorable character in its bearing upon the commercial interests of this country. The market for cotton is better and more active, and for breadstuffs the story is the same as brought by previous steamers, except that a continuance of unpropitious weather appears to have awakened a greater anxiety in regard to the crops. It is quite evident that Great Britain is to be a large consumer of our cereal products, and this at a time when the surplus here is so large is very important. The West needs customers only to turn its great harvest into money at good prices, and this result now appears to be insured. Consols are quoted at 93¼a93⅜. We understand that private dispatches quote Illinois Central at 25 per cent. discount, and Erie at 26—both showing a decided advance over last prices. We have no accounts in regard to the English money market, except that which announces a decline in Consols on account of a three million loan for India.

Stocks were steady yesterday in this market. At New York they were somewhat better, but remained dull.

Some 300 shares B&OR were sold yesterday, and brought 52a52¾ on buyers' time 5 to 60 days; and it left off for cash at 51 bid, but was still held at 52½. Nor Central R was again ¼ better, with fair demand. It sold at 22½ regular and 22¾a¾ buyer 60 days, closing regular way at 22½ bid.

City loans and Railroad bonds continue firm and regular, with small sales at previous rates. Central Ohio 2d mortgage brought 54, and more were wanted. There are more offerings of B&O bonds—the 1875's at 90, and 1885's at 89. There is increased inquiry for State loans—Maryland 6's at 101, Virginia 90½ and Missouri 81¾. The quotation is given of B&OR bonds of 1862. These are the extra dividend bonds, to be converted into stock in 1862—the bid for them is 70, with 85 asked.

Bank and Insurance stocks unchanged, but few offering. In the Mining fancies a moderate business, with a slight advance in some, while the majority were steady.

The following is a comparative statement of the condition of the Banks of the city of New York for the past two weeks:

	Aug. 11.	Aug. 18.	Difference.
Capital....	$69,404,527	$69,404,527
Loans.....	129,071,354	129,800,511 Inc.	$35,157
Specie.....	21,575,740	21,098,761 Dec.	477,000
Circulation.	9,129,875	9,088,618 Dec.	41,257
Deposits....	82,873,107	82,750,116 Dec.	122,991

This statement of weekly averages of the New York banks contains no item of material interest. The changes are about what was looked for, although a moderate reduction of loans was generally anticipated. The loss of the specie reserve is as small as could be expected. The increase of loans has undoubtedly arisen from the discounts made for interior corresponding banks who need funds to aid their dealers engaged in forwarding the produce of the West. The deposit line is very steady.

The weekly statement of the Philadelphia Banks, made up to Monday, presents the following aggregates, as compared with those of the previous week, viz:—An increase in capital of $2,860, an increase in loans of $8,000, an increase in specie of $3,147, a decrease in deposits of $83,942, and an increase in circulation of $4,315.

The Howard Bank, Baltimore, has declared a dividend of 4 per cent. for the last six months, payable on and after 5th September. State and City taxes paid by the Bank.

"The stock market is in no [illegible] day, and prices of the share list are ¼a½ per cent lower. At the close the market assumed a firm aspect, and the tendency of prices is again upward. The purchases of Erie at the close are supposed to come from parties having private London quotations. For Illinois Central 86¼, 1 per cent above the board price, is bid without bringing out the stock. One of the strongest of the speculative stocks is Michigan Central, which closes at 69¾.

"The State stocks are firmer. Tennessees rose ¼, to 90¾, North Carolinas ¼, to 97, Californias ¼, to 90¾. Missouris remain dull. The Railroad bonds are strongly held, particularly the issues of the Erie. Erie 3ds sold at 92."

There were sales at London on the 6th instant of Illinois Central shares all paid at 63, and scrip at 29½, 30 and 29½ discount, do. 7s at 86½a87 per cent; New York Central 7s at 96. Erie shares at 22½a23, and Pennsylvania Central 2d mortgage at 93.

The Chicago Press of Friday last says:

"To give our readers an idea of the commerce of Chicago this year, compared with last, we append the following table, showing the receipts of wheat and corn alone in this city for the first half of August compared with 1859:

	Wheat.	Corn.
1860	1,394,673	1,021,147
1859	208,021	273,922
Inc. this year	1,186,652	748,225—Total 1,931,877

"Our readers must recollect that this increase is on wheat and corn only. Yesterday the receipts of all kinds of grain amounted to 271,513 bushels—183,274 bushels of which was wheat. The shipments of wheat yesterday were 191,936 bushels."

A striking illustration of the difference between periods of prosperity and those of adversity is presented by the last annual report of the Cleveland and Toledo Railroad Company. The tables of through and way freight show a sliding scale as follows—in 1853 the average amount received from each ton of freight was $3 74 5-10, and from that year up to April 30, 1860 the reduction was followed from year to year, until at the date mentioned it had reached the minimum of $1 35 6-100 per ton, or less than one half the road received in 1853, and less by 61 cents per ton than it received in 1855. The average distance which each ton was carried during this time, was in 1853, 45 4-10 miles, and in 1854 53 miles, but in 1860 it had reached an average movement of 87 4-14 miles. The average amount received per mile during this period, from 8 31-100 in 1853, dwindled to 2 12-100 in 1859 and 1860 a difference of 6 24-100 per ton per mile. There is no stronger example of the difference between a period of adversity and prosperity than is furnished by these railway statistics.

The earnings of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey for the month of July, 1860, amounted to $108,373 69; same month of 1859, $85,431 73—being an increase this year (25 per cent.) of $22,941 96.

DR. J. ROSE,

OF PHILADELPHIA,

TO THE PEOPLE OF BALTIMORE.

Every intelligent and thinking person must know that remedies handed out for general use should have their efficacy established by well tested experience in the hands of a regularly educated Physician whose preparatory studies fit him for all the duties he must fulfil, yet the country is flooded with poor nostrums, purporting to be the best in the world, which are not only useless, but frequently injurious.

DR. J. S. ROSE'S MEDICINES are the results of 35 years' experience in Philadelphia, where he stands at the head of his profession.

DR. J. S. ROSE'S COUGH SYRUP, OR EXPECTORANT, for the radical cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis and all diseases of the Lungs. Price 50 cents and $1. Long experience has proved this preparation to be the only reliable remedy for the above complaints.

DR. J. S. ROSE'S ALTERATIVE SYRUP, OR BLOOD PURIFIER, for the cure of Scrofula, Old Eruptions, Chronic Diseases, Sores, Swelled Neck, Ulcers and all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood. Price $1.

DR. J. S. ROSE'S BUCHU COMPOUND, for all diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. Price 50 cts. The great demand for this article has induced others to bottle up something and call it Buchu. Ask for Rose's Buchu and take no other.

DR. J. S. ROSE'S PAIN CURER.—This popular and never failing remedy has alone stood the test of thirty-five years. Price 12, 25 and 50 cents.

THE PAIN CURER cures Rheumatism.

THE PAIN CURER cures Pains in the Limbs, Joints, Back or Bones.

THE PAIN CURER cures Colic, Pains in the Stomach or Bowels.

THE PAIN CURER cures Scalds, Burns, Sprains and Bruises.

THE PAIN CURER cures any pain internally or externally, and should be kept in every family.

We can only say to the afflicted, try the PAIN CURER. If it gives you relief, recommend it to others, if it fails, condemn it.

DR. J. S. ROSE'S DYSPEPTIC COMPOUND. The only sure cure for Dyspepsy and Liver Complaint. Price 50 cents.

Dyspepsy may be known by costiveness, belching up of wind, sour stomach, and sometimes diarrhea or looseness of the bowels, headache, nervousness, cold feet, wakefulness and variable appetite. If these symptoms are allowed to go on long without this medicine, (which will always cure,) then follow debility of the lungs and a predisposition to consumption.

If you would get cured of any of the above complaints take DR. J. S. ROSE'S GENUINE MEDICINES, which you will know when genuine by having his signature written over the cork of each bottle.
